

RESURRECTION

DEATH WAS ONLY THE BEGINNING

Name Dropping

Acts 2; Ephesians 1

1) The resurrection and exaltation of Jesus calls us to confident belief.

2) The resurrection and exaltation of Jesus calls us to courageous action.

My Application

Use the following questions this week to reflect on what it would mean to align yourself with the truths taught in Scripture. Each question is meant for both personal reflection and as a catalyst for discussion with your family, friends, or small group.

- 1) As you examine Peter's sermon in Acts 2:22-41, why did he emphasize both the resurrection and exaltation of Jesus? Why is this message important for people to hear today?
- 2) Study the context of Acts 4:8-12 and 5:29-32. How did the resurrection and exaltation of Jesus both inspire and embolden the apostles? How should it embolden us?
- 3) Read over Paul's prayer in Ephesians 1:18-23. What encourages you the most? What challenges you the most?
- 4) Jesus is seated at God's right hand bringing all things to a grand conclusion. Do you live as if you know the King? Do you name drop Jesus? What bold things should you endeavor because Jesus is exalted?
