My Application

Use the following questions this week to reflect on what it would mean to align yourself with the truths taught in Scripture. Each question is meant for both personal reflection and as a catalyst for discussion with your family, friends, or small group.

- 1) What are the characteristics of a giant? See 1 Samuel 17:4-10. Identify the specific giants of fear in your life. How is this giant holding you back?
- 2) Goliath asked for Israel's champion to fight him. Who was the natural choice? See 1 Samuel 8:20, 9:2, 10:23, 17:38-39. How did David differ from Saul in his understanding of being God's chosen leader?
- 3) What aspect of this story grabs your imagination? Why?
- 4) Evaluate your response to fear. How does fear distort your view of God? Ask God to reveal His power in over-coming your fear.

Memory Verse

*"...The Lord who delivered me from the paw of the lion and the paw of the bear will deliver me from the hand of this Philistine." Saul said to David,
"Go, and the Lord be with you."*
