

mostly
~~It's All~~ About God
sort of

What does God want to see and hear when we worship...

...according to Psalm 100?

...according to Psalm 150?

When I'm thinking the way God wants me to think...

I see the church less like a museum and more like a hospital.

I stop asking, "What is God doing for me?"

and begin asking "What is God doing in this place?"

I start thinking less like a guest and more like host.

4th message in the Psalms series, by Pastor John Covell.
CDs of this message (03/21/10) may be purchased at the Resource Center or listened to online at www.hcbc.com.

REALife Application

Below is a list of some comments often received by our own worship ministry. Can you relate? Think about and discuss these concerns in light of the challenges from today's message.

- Why do we sing so many songs in our services?
- The instruments are too loud!
- The instruments are too soft!
- The songs just repeat the same phrase over and over
- The songs are too "wordy"
- We should sing more hymns
- We should sing more new music
- Why do we stand so long?
- Why do some people raise their hands?
- We should be more joyful and excited
- We should be more somber and reflective

---

Memory Verse

*Enter His gates with thanksgiving and His courts with praise;
Give thanks to Him and praise His name.
For the LORD is good and His love endures forever;
His faithfulness continues through all generations.
(Psalm 100:4-5)*