

MODERN FAMILY

Says Who?

Selected Scripture

How do we define the family?

How does God define the family?

God is a team player. (Philippians 2:6-11)

God lives in relationship.

God lives with purpose.

Life is a team sport. (Genesis 1:26-28)

Family is relationship.

Family has a purpose.

Danger of replacing the "ideal" with the "normal."

My Application

Use the following questions this week to reflect on what it would mean to align yourself with the truths taught in Scripture. Each question is meant for both personal reflection and as a catalyst for discussion with your family, friends, or small group.

- 1) How would you describe the family you grew up in? How does that affect your view of the family today?
- 2) Ponder the Trinity. What are some of the characteristics of the Trinity that shape our understanding of our nature? See Genesis 1:26-28.
- 3) Why did God make Adam and Eve separately? See Genesis 2:7-23. How does this highlight the value of both men and women?
- 4) What is one thing you could do personally to move one step closer to God's ideal for the family?

Memory Verse

"So God created man in His own image, in the image of God He created him; male and female He created them."

Genesis 1:27
