My Application

Use the following questions this week to reflect on what it would mean to align yourself with the truths taught in Scripture. Each question is meant for both personal reflection and as a catalyst for discussion with your family, friends, or small group.

1. What is your view of the Bible? How did you come to hold that view and why?
2. There are many competing voices to the life-giving words of the Bible. Identify some of those voices. How has Satan used a life-taking voice to rob something from you?
3. Discuss the danger of learning and knowing without doing. See James 1:22-26; John 15:9-17; Hebrews 5:11-14.
4. Are you training in righteousness or just trying? What is your current training plan? How can your group help you train effectively?

Memory Verse

"And I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, may have power, together with all the saints, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ, and to know this love that surpasses knowledge – that you may be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God."

- Ephesians 3:17b-19
