My Application

Use the following questions this week to reflect on what it would mean to align yourself with the truths taught in Scripture. Each question is meant for both personal reflection and as a catalyst for discussion with your family, friends, or small group.

1. Read Luke 15:11-31. Which character do you most identify with in this story?
2. In this parable, the father is watching for his son to return. Are you watching and waiting for the people you love? Is anyone watching and waiting for you?
3. Read Romans 5:8. Are you able to accept where others are on their spiritual journey, and rejoice when they make progress?
4. If someone brought a “prodigal” to your small group or our church, how do you think they would be received? Would you/we respond like the father or like the older son?

Memory Verse

“And I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, may have power, together with all the saints, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ, and to know this love that surpasses knowledge – that you may be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God.”

- Ephesians 3:17b-19
