Repairing the Damage

Leviticus 5:14 – 6:7

The guilt offering repairs the damage of sin.

- Protecting the valuables of others
- Restoring the valuables of others

The guilt offering restores the damaged relationships.

- Right with people
- Right with God

Jesus is the perfect and final guilt offering for us.

My Application

Use the following questions this week to reflect on what it would mean to align yourself with the truths taught in Scripture. Each question is meant for both personal reflection and as a catalyst for discussion with your family, friends, or small group.

- 1) Have you ever been ripped off, defrauded, swindled, or had your identity stolen? How did that cost you in money and more?
- 2) Evaluate this statement: "Sin damages both the world and people." What about small sins? What about the ripple effect of each sin?
- 3) Why is it important to repair the damage plus 20%? Do you have any outstanding guilt toward God or others that needs to be repaired?
- 4) How is Jesus the perfect and final guilt offering? See Isaiah 53:10; 1 Peter 1:18-19; Revelation 21:1-5.

Memory Verse

*Yet it was the Lord's will to crush him and cause him to suffer, and though the Lord makes his life an offering for sin,
he will see his offspring and prolong his days,
and the will of the Lord will prosper in his hand.*

Isaiah 53:10
