

Atonement.

Right Perspective, Right Response

Leviticus 2

The grain offering was a dedication...

... motivated by gratitude...

... expressing dependence.

Jesus is the example of dedication, our source for gratitude, and our confidence for life.

My Application

Use the following questions this week to reflect on what it would mean to align yourself with the truths taught in Scripture. Each question is meant for both personal reflection and as a catalyst for discussion with your family, friends, or small group.

- 1) Consider the things that you value most in life. What would your “grain offering” to God look like? Why would that be so hard?
- 2) When is the last time the cross compelled you to action? Read 2 Corinthians 5:14-15, and spend some time reflecting on the cross and your response to Jesus’ atonement for your sins.
- 3) Read Romans 12:1-2. What is your view of God’s mercy? Have you accepted that it is full and complete, regardless of what you’ve done?
- 4) Do you struggle to believe that God has fully forgiven you? What can you do to replace your doubt with gratitude for what Jesus has done on your behalf?

Memory Verse

My dear children, I write this to you so that you will not sin. But if anybody does sin, we have one who speaks to the Father in our defense – Jesus Christ, the Righteous One. He is the atoning sacrifice for our sins, and not only for ours but also for the sins of the whole world.
