CHRISTIANITY VS. WESTERN CIVILIZATION

The Bible and Education

Selected Scriptures

Education in the Old Testament

Jesus and Children

Education in the New Testament

Application:

- 1) Take back responsibility for the spiritual, relational, and intellectual education of your kids – and let us help.
- 2) Make your life and love for God your primary textbook.
- 3) Keep growing after they're gone.

My Application

Use the following questions this week to reflect on what it would mean to align yourself with the truths taught in Scripture. Each question is meant for both personal reflection and as a catalyst for discussion with your family, friends, or small group.

- 1) In honor of Mother's Day, share some memories of your mom. What are some of her characteristics that shape you today?
- 2) As you read Deuteronomy 6:4-7, explain why parents must be living their faith before they can pass it on to their kids. Why are parents so important?
- 3) How is or how has the church helped you with your responsibilities to raise your children? If you don't have kids, what do you feel about the ministries that are directed toward kids and parents?
- 4) Would you consider yourself an "engaged Christian" – learning, growing, tuned into the culture, trying to impact people and society with the gospel? What help do you need?

Memory Verse

Fathers, do not exasperate your children; instead, bring them up in the training and instruction of the Lord.

- Ephesians 6:4
