Experiencing the Power of God

2 Kings 2:1-14

God desires for us to experience His power and to demonstrate it through us.

1) We can experience the power of God when we invest in relationships. vv.1-8

2) We can experience the power of God when we ask for it. vv.9-10

3) We can experience the power of God when we walk by faith. vv.11-14

My Application

Use the following questions this week to reflect on what it would mean to align yourself with the truths taught in Scripture. Each question is meant for both personal reflection and as a catalyst for discussion with your family, friends, or small group.

- 1) As you read 2 Kings 2:1-14, how is the power of God displayed? What does this reveal about God?
- 2) What does it look like to have the power of God in your life? How are you currently experiencing the power of God? What prevents you from experiencing the power of God?
- 3) If someone were walking shoulder to shoulder with you, what would they see? What things would you continue? What things would you change?
- 4) Who is someone that needs to see the power of God in your life? What steps can you take to begin that process?

Memory Verse

"Let me inherit a double portion of your spirit." Elisha replied.
