My Application

Use the following questions this week to reflect on what it would mean to align yourself with the truths taught in Scripture. Each question is meant for both personal reflection and as a catalyst for discussion with your family, friends, or small group.

- 1) Think back through the life of Moses and identify his successes and failures. Why is he used as the example of faithfulness? What hope does he give us? How does he compare to Jesus?
- 2) The writer of Hebrews refers to “sin’s deceitfulness.” In what way is sin deceitful? Have you seen this in your own life?
- 3) The Bible places a high priority on positive peer pressure. See Heb. 3:13; 10:24-25; Eph. 4:15-16; Prov. 27:17. Who encourages you on a regular basis?
- 4) What is the current condition of your heart? Be vulnerable. See Heb. 3:13; Prov. 4:23.

He is able to help those who are being tempted.”*
