Jesus Is the Better Promise

Hebrews 6:1-20

What about those who bail...

Were they ever really believers?

What can we do for them?

What will happen to them?

What will keep me from bailing...

God's Generosity

God's Promises

My Application

Use the following questions this week to reflect on what it would mean to align yourself with the truths taught in Scripture. Each question is meant for both personal reflection and as a catalyst for discussion with your family, friends, or small group.

- 1) When you look at the whole context of the exhortation in Hebrews 5:11 – 6:20, who is the writer addressing? Does this give you some insight into the issues they are facing?
- 2) How does God deal with the believer involved in disobedience? See Hebrews 12:5-11. Is this ever extreme? See 1 Corinthians 5:5; 11:30; 1 John 5:16-17; James 5:19-20. Why would God do this?
- 3) Does the writer of Hebrews use the future rewards of the believer as a motivation to endure persecution in the Christian life? See Hebrews 6:12, 10:36, 11:6, 10, 15, 16, 26.
- 4) What are you currently doing to keep your heart from growing cold? How do you keep your life accountable to other believers?

He is able to help those who are being tempted.”*
