Contemporary Islam: A Christian Perspective

What is Islam today? (Struggle for interpretation.)

What is Islam's goal? (Struggle for "ummah".)

What is a Christian response? (Struggle for truth.)

My Application

Use the following questions this week to reflect on what it would mean to align yourself with the truths taught in Scripture. Each question is meant for both personal reflection and as a catalyst for discussion with your family, friends, or small group.

1. Explain the challenges of interpreting a religion text like the Qur'an in a changing, pluralist world. How does the Bible address this problem?
2. Why is it important to speak honestly with one another in a loving way about our deepest held values and beliefs? How does that approach help us to love our neighbors? See Mark 12:28-31.
3. How did Jesus treat people that had problems? Can you think of an example of these types of people today and how you relate to them? See John 8:1-11, Luke 19:1-10, Matthew 8:5-13 and 1 Peter 2:21-25.
4. Why is it important to pray for people who may be against us? See Matthew 5:43-47.

Memory Verse

"But I tell you: Love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you..."

Matthew 5:44
