

LOVE...

WHERE YOU LIVE

What's Your Peg?

Matthew 22:34-40

- 1) Our love for God and our neighbor is a response to God's love for us.
- 2) Our love for God and our neighbor is the ultimate motivation for all other commands.
- 3) Our expression of love for God and our neighbor leads us into a deeper experience of love.

My Application

Use the following questions this week to reflect on what it would mean to align yourself with the truths taught in Scripture. Each question is meant for both personal reflection and as a catalyst for discussion with your family, friends, or small group.

1. What is your peg? What is the ultimate motivation for all the activities in your life? Be as honest as you can.
2. How can God command us to love Him and our neighbor? Does this work? Where does our power to love come from? See 1 John 4:7-11; Romans 5:6-8.
3. In what way is the greatest commandment great? See Romans 13:9-10, Galatians 5:13-14 and James 2:8-11. Why is loving our neighbor essential to all other commands? See 1 Corinthians 13:1-3.
4. If loving our neighbor is priority one to Jesus, why do so many (50%) Christians in America not know their neighbors' names? How would our community be different if every Christian took the Great Commandment seriously?

Memory Verse

"Jesus replied: 'Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like it: Love your neighbor as yourself. All the Law and the Prophets hang on these two commandments.'"

Matthew 22:37-40
