Beyond Tolerance to Grace

Luke 6:27-36

1) Jesus shows us pictures of revolutionary acts of grace.

2) Jesus points us to the God of love and mercy.

- What you lose will be rewarded.
- What you gain is a new identity.

My Application

Use the following questions this week to reflect on what it would mean to align yourself with the truths taught in Scripture. Each question is meant for both personal reflection and as a catalyst for discussion with your family, friends, or small group.

1. Define tolerance (not the politically correct definition, but the actual meaning). Define grace. How are they different?
2. Read Luke 6:27-31. Why do you think Jesus uses such extreme examples? How do you feel about these radical acts of grace?
3. Have you ever personally experienced a radical act of grace? How did it impact you? Explain.
4. Ponder what would happen in your neighborhood if those who follow Jesus lived by radical acts of grace? How do these acts make us like Jesus? See Philippians 2:5-11; 1 Peter 2:21-25; Isaiah 53:3-7.

Memory Verse

"Do to others as you would have them do to you."

-Luke 6:31
