THE FINAL JUDGMENT AND GLORY

Imagine

Revelation 21-22

A Whole New World.

A New Experience.

A New City.

A Final Word.

Final Prophecy.

Final Appeal.

My Application

Use the following questions this week to reflect on what it would mean to align yourself with the truths taught in Scripture. Each question is meant for both personal reflection and as a catalyst for discussion with your family, friends, or small group.

1. Imagine the new heavens and earth as described in Revelation 21 and 22. What is missing that we experience now? How has the relationship between God and people changed?
2. As you look at the physical characteristics of the New Jerusalem, what is most impressive to you? Read Genesis 2 and compare it to Revelation 22:1-5. What is the connection?
3. What does Jesus mean when he says he is coming “soon”? (Revelation 22:7, 12, 20). See Psalm 90:4, 2 Peter 3:8-13. How does his return impact your life?
4. What are the primary personal applications you have drawn from our study of Revelation? How has it changed you?

Memory Verse

“Look, I am coming soon! My reward is with me, and I will give to each person according to what they have done.”

Revelation 22:12 (NIV)
