The god of Comfort

Matthew 26 - 27

1) We were designed for adventure and glory.

2) Jesus showed us that passion for God's glory is real life.

My Application

Use the following questions this week to reflect on what it would mean to align yourself with the truths taught in Scripture. Each question is meant for both personal reflection and as a catalyst for discussion with your family, friends, or small group.

1. What are ways that Satan has counterfeited the Sabbath into the false god of comfort? Why is this idol so dangerous?
2. Are there experiences or hurts that have caused you to lose some of your passion for doing the hard things that make a difference? Explain.
3. Read Matthew 26 – 27. Explore all the hardships Jesus faced in giving us salvation. How does His passion give you motivation to reject the false god of comfort?
4. What are things you need to let go of to be fully alive for God and to engage in His mission?
